

Are you considering agriculture once you leave military service?

Join the NC Farmer-Veteran Network!

- Meet regularly with other farmer-veterans in your area
- Participate in expert-led production and business workshops
- Access a national and state-level resource referral system specific to farmer-veterans
- Learn from experts and your peers in agriculture
- Contribute to the revival of rural areas and local economies

The network is open all veterans interested in agriculture, regardless of farming background, type of production, or physical ability.

Contact the Network Coordinator at kavita@rafiusa.org or 919 621 0534 for details.
