

2019 Commander's Choice Award

This award is designed and selected by the Department Commander for the purpose of identifying the individual(s) in the Legion family who contributes the most to the post, district, department and community and has shown themselves to be a “go to” person who can be relied upon to step up and do whatever may be needed to accomplish the task at hand.

Posts, Units, Squadrons, ALR's should submit a narrative along with newspaper articles and any other pertinent data to justify selection of their candidate. There will be a first, second, and third place recipient.

EVAN THOMPSON, Department Commander
